THE STANDARD ENDOWMENT ASSURANCE.

1. AMONG THE MANY ADVANTAGES of this form of Assurance, the following may be mentioned:—

(a)—It secures an immediate Provision for wife and family or other relatives in event of early death.

(b)—It provides a Fund for Retirement.

(c)—It supplies an excellent Investment for the regular accumulation of small fixed sums of money.

(d)—The Surrender and Loan values are larger than under ordinary Policies.

2. AFTER THE POLICY HAS BEEN THREE YEARS IN FORCE—should the Policy-holder wish to discontinue future payments—he will be entitled to receive, on application, a FREE PAID-UP POLICY for a proportionate amount of the Sum Assured, as explained in the Prospectus.

NOW READY.

(PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.)

"THE HONGKONG DIRECTORY AND HONG LIST FOR THE FAR EAST," A DIRECTORY AND WORK OF REFERENCE ON ALL IMPORTANT LOCAL SUBJECTS FOR HONGKONG, MACAO, CHINA, JAPAN, THE STRAITS SETTLEMENTS, SIAM, INDIA, NORTH BORNEO, THE PHILIPPINES, AND COREA, FOR THE YEAR 1894.

PRICE THREE DOLLARS.

THE HONGKONG DIRECTORY has again been enlarged and will be found

THE CHEAPEST, MOST COMPLETE, AND MOST RELIABLE WORK OF THE KIND EVER PUBLISHED IN THE FAR EAST.

THE above named work, published at the Office of "THE HONGKONG TELEGRAPH," contains a Directory for the Ports in the large portion of Asia between Penang, in the Straits Settlements, and the Northern Chinese Ports, including Vladivostok, Formosa, the Treaty Ports of China and Japan, Cochin-China, the Philippine Islands, Corea, British North Borneo, the British Colony or Hongkong, and the Portuguese Colony of Macao. It also contains the Principal Treaties between European countries and the United States and the countries East of the Straits, including the Treaties and Conventions between China and Great Britain, France, Germany, Russia, the United States of America, Brazil, Japan, Peru, Spain, and Portugal; together with conditions of Trade, and the Port, Customs, Consular, and Harbour Regulations for the Ports of China and Japan; also descriptions of the various Ports, with the latest Trade Statistics, taken from the Reports of the Imperial Maritime Customs and other reliable sources.

The various Governments and Municipal Corporations, and all Public Bodies and Companies, Bankers, Merchants, Consuls, Professional men, and other Residents, have supplied the necessary matter, upon forms specially sent for that purpose so as to ensure accuracy. The Naval and Military portions have been taken from the latest published official lists and revised at Headquarters; in fact, no pains have been spared to make "THE HONGKONG DIRECTORY AND HONG LIST FOR THE FAR EAST" a handy and perfectly reliable book of reference for all classes.

In addition to the information enumerated above "THE HONGKONG DIRECTORY AND HONG LIST FOR THE FAR EAST" for 1894 contains a carefully revised employed in Steamers making short voyages from Hongkong;

INDEX TO THE ORDINANCES OF HONGKONG;A SPECIAL LIST OF FOREIGNERS

THE PRIVATE RESIDENCES of the Principal Government Officials, the Leading Merchants, the Foreign Consuls, Professional Men, Justices of the Peace, &c.

A LADIES DIRECTORY FOR HONGKONG,

The latest and only reliable

PLAN OF THE CITY OF VICTORIA, showing the proposed Reclamations and all recent additions and improvements, AND

A Mass of interesting information on various subjects, culled from the most trustworthy sources.

A CHAPTER ON SPORT

gives all statistics up to date regarding the Derby, St. Leger and other great events, Athletic records, the WINNERS of all IMPORTANT RACES at HONGKONG, SHANGHAI, FOCHOW, and AMOY, with times, and other interesting particulars, carefully compiled from the most reliable sources, making "THE HONGKONG DIRECTORY AND HONG LIST FOR THE FAR EAST," a vaude marm for all classes of sportsmen.

"THE HONGKONG DIRECTORY AND HONG LIST FOR THE FAR EAST" for 1894 is printed on a superior quality of Paper, and is the best printed and most handsomely bound volume ever published East of the Suez Canal.

"THE HONGKONG DIRECTORY AND HONG LIST FOR THE FAR EAST," in order that it may circulate extensively outside this Colony, is published at a POPULAR PRICE, and can be ordered at This Office, or through any of our Agents at the various Ports, for THREE DOLLARS.

There is not space in the compass of an Ordinary Advertisement to detail all the information introduced into the work, but it may be fairly asserted that no such Directory has ever been published, either in Hongkong or any other part of the East, at such a low price.

"THE HONGKONG DIRECTORY AND HONG LIST FOR THE FAR EAST" offers Special Advantages as an Advertising Medium. It has an extensive circulation in all Ports between Singapore and Newchwang, in the Australian Colonies, the United States, and the United Kingdom, and the scale of charges has been fixed at an exceptionally low rate. Terms can be learned on application.

Suggestions for the Improvement of this work are respectfully solicited.

Orders for COPIES, and for ADVERTISEMENTS may be sent to the Agents at the various Ports, or to the Office of "THE HONGKONG TELEGRAPH" PRESS, HILL, HONGKONG, Hongkong, 16th January, 1894.

A. S. WATSON & CO., LD. HONGKONG DISPENSARY.

Hongkong, 30th March, 1894.

The Hongkong Telegraph.

HONGKONG, THURSDAY, APRIL 5, 1894.

T. R. U. T. H.

An eminent American journalist, in one of the leading periodicals, denounces the general insincerity and corruption of modern Journalism. He formulates fundamental maxims that should regulate the conduct of every honest newspaper, emphasizing foremost that—"A Journal should place accuracy of statement above all other considerations," and again that "It should be honest and express sincere convictions." Is not this precisely what the Hongkong Telegraph for many years, with good intention and well-directed effort, yet unfortunately with but indifferent success in some directions, has been endeavouring to instil into the vacillating, imbecile minds of its weak-kneed colleagues of the Daily Press and China Mail? Have not we, earnestly and entreatingly, time after time, besought our local contemporaries to assert the truth at whatever cost? And not only to our contemporaries has this sound principle been tendered, but also to others, particularly to the Government Officials of this colony. Contemplating certain individuals in their zig-zag ways, we are compelled to believe that they are built on the diagonal and thus cannot possibly act on the square; or, like some dogs, although their heads be placed straight, they must run sideways. Is there anywhere a standard of Truth, or is Truth merely a mode of elasticity? Rolling down the ages is heard a voice, mocking the philosophy of antiquity and shouting defiance to all posterity—"What is Truth?" After you have wandered the wide world over and found it not, come back to Hongkong and vainly seek it here.

The smallest lie ever uttered—it is on record—was negotiated by ANANIAS, and he suffered instant death. A fallacy is circulating that he was punished for the supposed enormity of the lie. Not so. The occasion was an object lesson, the moral that bigger lies would be met by greater punishments. Some people in Hongkong ought to be and would be torn with red-hot pliers or boiled in oil if we still lived in the dark ages. The measure of a lie is its deceit; that of ANANIAS was self-assertively transparent. It was simply a burlesque, as for instance if a man says "I have two mothers," the natural fact being impossible. But if he say "I have two fathers" he may be stating the truth or may intend a lie as regards physical agency, possibly reserving to himself the subterfuge of an allegory, e.g., that appreciating the great benefits enjoyed by this Colony, he yearns towards Governor ROBINSON with tender feelings as of a son. "ANANIAS" sold a possession and kept back part of the price, and brought the other part and laid it at the Apostle's feet? Think that he sold his own property with humility, donated the bulk of the proceeds, and was blasted for not disgorging the remainder. But his act was an emulative, clumsy proceeding; doubtless at the first attempt a Hongkong Broker would have displayed far better science and skill; he would have sold, not his own, but the Apostle's property, pocketed the shekels and stuck the unsuspecting Holy Man with worthless paper. With humility? No, with cheek.

What is Truth? It is difficult to define the unknowable, but some conception may be realised by considering what it is not. Some years ago, under a nom-de-plume, we wrote an exhaustive treatise condemnatory of falsehood, copiously exemplifying its varied tortuous usages; but to our dismay, such is the depravity of mankind, we have lately learned that the book is held by most classes of liars and thieves, as the auxiliary cyclopaedia of their professions. All deceit, whether in speech, alliance, gesture or act, is of the nature of a lie, and the art is sublimated when facts are presented, not even distorted, but just slightly opaque, oblique, or a trifle out of perspective. Cunningly devised falsehood is allied to truth just as green is to blue, in that both can be tinted to a point of absolute resemblance. Among the higher exponents of the Excelsior Art must be classed those 'Bar Boys' who, having emptied a bottle of Dawson's Whisky, replenish it with rotgut at twenty cents a bottle and retail the spurious for the genuine article. Of the same ilk is that sleek self-advertising philanthropist—all know him—who, with one foot in the grave and piles of dollars in the bank, sings piously on the Sabbath—"Were the whole realm of nature mine that were an offering far too small," and then blandly puts ten cents in the hat.

What must be said of an inefficient Governor, whoever and wherever he may be, bolstering a huge system of officials exuding crass ignorance from every pore; skilled only in mismanagement; a rapacious horde reaping where they have not sown; a festering cancer in the heart of the community? When they draw their large salaries for abilities they do not possess and for work they have not performed, are they telling the truth? "Their ears are dull of hearing and their eyes they have closed, lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their heart and should be converted."

But certainly the most hideous and degraded form of lying is a certain class of everyday Journalism. To investigate the subject is like wallowing in a sewer. We mention no names, but there are journalists—tertiary liars—of whom it may be said, as it was of King John, "Hell itself is (or will be) defiled by their foul presence." Unfounded facts are their most innocent type of lie. Everybody knows, for instance, how the war news of a certain Colonial evening paper was dished up in 1885, but the story, as told to us, is so apposite to the moral of our subject as to deserve repetition. In that Colony was a Governor, in his household a pretty slavey; and the Editor would turn round the grounds under cover of dusk and, arrived at the back door, would chirp "Come into the Garden, MAUV" or a kindred ditty, to which the maiden would quickly respond.

"Good evening, MAUV, my dear, you're looking more charming than ever."

"Oh! please don't squeeze me like that, sir, you make me feel so funny" (Interval for refreshments).

"Has master had any telegrams to-day, my dear?"

"Yes, sir, he had one this afternoon."

"What did he say? Did he look anxious or alarmed?"

"Yes, sir, when he opened it he said 'Struth,' and ordered another gin and water."

On this authority would serenely appear in a following issue some such paragraph as this—"The political situation is grave in the extreme! We are hastening towards a crisis! On the next few hours hang the destiny of the Empire! His Excellency received, yesterday afternoon, a most important telegram. We do not feel justified in publishing the contents at this juncture but they are of a most intricate and embarrassing nature. The eyes of Europe are towards His Excellency. We sympathize with him in his arduous and responsible duties."

Such manufacturing may be pleasant. Some rascals might call it smart; the Telegraph despises it. And those grovelling hounds, fawning and truckling and smiling to officialism and the cat's-meat that calls itself "Society"—is there any sentiment of honour or candour or common honesty in the opinions they express? We commend to their notice Rev. 21.3.

As for the Hongkong Telegraph, it shall be our aim henceforth, as heretofore, to keep our eyes towards the pole of eternal truth; we shall represent incidents as they occur, facts as they present themselves; state our convictions and drag to justice evil-doers, without fear of Man or Beast.

TELEGRAMS.HOME RULE FOR SCOTLAND.

LONDON, April and.

Sir George Otto Trevelyan (Secretary for Scotland) brought forward a Bill in the House of Commons for the creation of a Grand Committee for the control of Scotch affairs. The Bill was opposed by Mr. Balfour on the ground that the appointment of such a Committee would tend to accentuate national differences.

[In reference to the foregoing, Mr. Gladstone announced to a deputation of Scotch members on the 26th Feb. that the Government would accede, as an experiment, to the appointment of the Scotch members as a Grand or Standing Committee, to whom should be referred all Bills relating to Scotland that had passed the second reading. To the Scotch members, however, would be added a certain number of other members chosen by the Committee of Selection.—Ed., Hongkong Telegraph.]

A CANADIAN TEA TAX.

The new Canadian tariff imposes a duty of 10 cents per pound on tea, except on shipments direct from tea-producing countries, or via England. It is stated that this duty has been imposed for the purpose of obviating adulteration.

CONTINENTAL TREATIES.

A Commercial Treaty, principally due to the personal intervention of the Czar, has been concluded between Austria and Russia, and is regarded as an important indication of a probable Austro-Russian rapprochement.

It is stated that there are prospects of a Commercial Agreement between Austria, Russia, and Germany, which will probably be followed by a Pacific understanding permitting of the suspension of military preparations.

FRANCE AND ITALY.

The Governments of Austria and Germany are endeavouring to encourage a better feeling between France and Italy.

THE GOVERNOR OF INDO-CHINA.

PARIS, March 25th.

The Journal says that M. de Lencastre, Governor-General of French Indo-China (now in Europe on leave) is to be superseded; but the Havas agency denies the assertion.

THE FRENCH COLONIES.

MARCH 26th.

M. Boulanger, the newly appointed Minister for the Colonies, held a reception of the Colonial Office staff yesterday. He stated that the elevation of the office from a sub-secretariat to a ministry indicated the increasing importance of the colonies, calling for fresh efforts. He announced his intention of strengthening the personnel, and said he relied on the devoted support of the Colonial Service, and was ready to be equally loyal in return.

THE SANTANDER DYNAMITE SHIP.

MADRID, March 30th.

At Santander to-day, after every precaution had been taken, and everything cleared away for some distance, four torpedoes were directed against the sunken wreck of the dynamite-laden steamer Machichaco, on which there have already been such terrible explosions. The wreck was blown to pieces successfully, and it is now believed that all danger has been removed.

COINAGE IN SPANISH COLONIES.

The Colonial Minister, Sr. Becerra, to-day informed the Cuba and Porto Rico Deputies to the Cortes that he was determined to prevent the circulation of foreign money in Spanish Colonies as recognized tender.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The Canadian Pacific Railway Co.'s royal mail steamer Empress of India left Vancouver for this port on the 3rd inst.

The French steamer Hanoi, which arrived here to-day, reports having met three Chinese iron-clads going west, in Hainan Straits, yesterday.

The P. & O. and Messageries Maritimes advertise their usual cheap rates for trips to Shanghai during the rice—$50 for a return ticket available a month.

A REGULAR meeting of the Victoria Priory will be held in Freemasons' Hall, Zetland Street this evening, at 8.30 for 9 o'clock precisely. Visiting brethren are cordially invited.

The officers of the Russian gunboat Zabinka on Easter Sunday sent a congratulatory telegram from Nagasaki to a Tonkin newspaper, wishing the community "the compliments of the season."

The Avanti sent a telegram in reply.

The Prince of Colonna has entered an action at law against the New York World for $10,000 damages. The claim is made that the newspaper libelled him "when it said he was expelled from a jockey club for stealing."

A TONKIN paper, referring to an opposition periodical which started on the "Independent" line but has degenerated, compares the journal to a pretty girl, who has become ugly and diseased through too reckless lack of morality.

The navigation of the Dead Sea is the latest step in Oriental progress. The Sultan has sent two sailing boats there, one for freight and one for passengers, and he intends to try and make money out of the salt, bitumen and sulphur of the lake.

A GOLD watch-chain and locket were presented to Mr. D. C. Christie, ex-Sergeant and drill instructor of the Hongkong Police Force, yesterday on the eve of his departure for Shanghai, where he will, we understand, join the Model Settlement's Force.

The Scottish Oriental Co.'s steamer Phra Chom Klao came out of dock this morning, her berth being taken up by the Loosoo, which will be "touched up" by the experts of the Dock Company and leaving the afternoon the Indo-China Co.'s Calcutta liner Wingang was docked for a slight overhaul.

The French mail boat Salgon, wrecked on the coast of Annam, has become a total loss. She hangs at an angle of 45 deg. by the bows, the after part of the ship being under water. All that could be got out of her has been taken aboard, and there is no hope of floating her. The Tamir, a cargo-boat of 3,400 tons, formerly plying between London and Havre, has been bought to run between Saigon and Tonkin in place of the wrecked mail boat.

A MONTANA man has invented a boat for navigation on the Missouri and other mountain rivers. The boat is seventeen feet long and four feet beam. Attached to the stern is a paddle-wheel, hung from a frame, which can be raised or lowered as the boat is in shallow or deep water. The wheel is revolved by an endless chain which passes over a crank in the centre of the boat, moved by an arrangement similar to that used in propelling hand-cars.

At the Magistracy to-day, in the course of an incidental case, it was mentioned that the cooler employed in the Naval Yard have been in the habit of paying their headman 50 cents each per day, as a commission, in return for his kindness in allowing them to work there at wages of 70 cents a day. Commodore Boyes has been endeavouring to suppress this shameful extortion, and it was on that account that trouble had arisen among the coolies. The case before his Worship was not proved, but he took the opportunity to condemn the "squeezing pig."

Says the N. Y. Maritime Register—The United States do not want any transmarine possessions. Nor do they want any European Power to increase its territorial possessions where such holdings may in the least degree be used as a point of advantage against the United States in case of war. The holding of transmarine possessions has many drawbacks, and this fact is well set forth in an article in the London Quarterly Review. The article says: "Every Power in the world holds all its transmarine possessions merely as the caretaker of the ultimate naval power. If England is that power every such possession is hers for the trouble of taking it whenever she is at war with the power which holds it. If she is not, her empire is at an end, and her very existence as an independent nation must ever be at the mercy of her victorious foes. This, and no less than this, is the strategical meaning of the command of the sea. To the British Empire its possession means security, its loss annihilation. The command of the seas means much indeed under such conditions. But it means also more. It gives in addition the mastery of the commerce of the world. That England will hold this great position for ever is neither probable or possible. That she will hold it for many years yet is a prophecy more open to belief."

Dr. de Medeiros, Bishop of Macao, arrived at Singapore from Barcelona by the Spanish steamer Santo Domingo on March 28th.

We understand that the Potter-Bellows company will shortly proceed to the United States and will perform for short seasons in Hongkong, Shanghai and Yokohama en route.
